Hopkins Fall of the Wall
Campus Weeks 2014

Film Screenings & Discussion with German documentary filmmaker Andreas Voigt

Wednesday, November 5, 2014, 5pm, Gilman Hall 50
Tells the story of the momentous events in the East German city of Leipzig in the fall of 1989 during the weeks leading up to the Fall of the Berlin Wall.
In German with English subtitles

Thursday, November 6, 2014, 5pm, Gilman Hall 50
‘Letztes Jahr Titanic’ / ‘Last Year Titanic’ 1991, 95 min
Follows the lives of five East Germans as they make their way in Leipzig from December 1989 to December 1990, the last year of the East German state and the first months of a reunified Germany.
In German with English subtitles

Andreas Voigt is an award-winning independent documentary filmmaker. Originally from Eisleben and Dessau, Voigt studied in Krakow, Berlin and Potsdam-Babelsberg. He worked for the DEFA film studio in Babelsberg before its closure after German reunification. He is best known for his Leipzig series of films documenting the events of German unification.

Funded by the Embassy of Germany
www.Germany.info/fallofthewall

Organized by the German Program of the Johns Hopkins University
Contact: Deborah McGee Mifflin, mifflind@jhu.edu