

Max Kade Center Summer Travel Grant

The German Program, with the support of the Max Kade Center for Modern German Thought, is pleased to announce 10 Travel Grants in the amount of $1,200 to support summer study abroad (German language courses, seminars in other disciplines, internships) in Germany.

Eligibility: Applicants must be full-time undergraduates at Johns Hopkins University. Prior knowledge of German is not required to apply for the grant and students from across the university are encouraged to apply. Preference is given to students who are German majors, German minors or students enrolled in courses in the German program.

Application Process: Applicants apply directly to Professor Rochelle Tobias (rtobias@jhu.edu), Co-Director of the Max Kade Center for Modern German Thought. Applications are due by April 3, 2017 and must include:

___ Application Form (See page 2)

___ Copy of Transcript

___ Name of Academic Advisor (as reference)

___ Statement of Purpose (reasons for studying German & studying in Germany, ½ - 1 page)

___ Information about the program applicant has applied to / intends to apply to.

For more information, contact Professor Rochelle Tobias rtobias@jhu.edu or Deborah Mifflin mifflind@jhu.edu, the German Language Program Director.

The Max Kade Center Summer Travel Grant

April 3, 2017 Deadline

Application Form (Complete & submit along with transcript, Statement of Purpose, & Information on Program Applying to)

Full Name: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____ Phone: _____

Year of Study: _____ Freshman _____ Sophomore _____ Junior _____ Senior

Academic Major(s): _____

Academic Minor(s): _____

Academic Advisor: _____

Previous Courses in German: _____

Current Course(s) in German: _____

Summer Program applying to: _____

Exact place & dates: _____

Proposed plans for study: _____

Submit application packet to:

Professor Rochelle Tobias
Gilman Hall 401
Department of German & Romance Languages & Literatures